

Record a TV program – API Documentation

This document explains the process of recording a television program using API requests.

Record a TV program

Gets a request to record a television program.

XML request

```
<recordTV>

<date>2015-06-01</date>

<time format="24">18:00</time>

<duration>1.5</duration>

<channel>54</channel>

</recordTV>
```

Response

Element	Description	Type	Required	Notes
recordTV	Element with data of when a TV program should be recorded	TV program data	Required
date	The date of the program	string	Optional	Default value is current date if no date is entered time	The time of the program	string	Required	Attributes: Format is 24 hours or 12 hours with a value of "24" or "12". Format is HH:MM with AM/PM for 12-hour format. Example of 12-hour format: 06:00 PM duration	The duration of the program (in hours)	number	Required	The recording duration is converted from minutes or seconds to the nearest hour format. For example, If the recording lasts for 90 minutes, it will be converted into 1.5 hours.
channel	The channel number where the program is telecast	number	Required

Record a TV program at a specified time

Gets a request to record a television program at a specified time.

XML Request

```
<recordTV>
```

```
<when date="2015-06-01" time="18:00" format="24"/>
```

```
<duration hours="1.5"/>
```

```
<station channel="54"/>
```

```
</recordTV>
```

Response

Element		Attribute	Description	Type	Required	Notes
recordTV			Element with data of when a TV program should be recorded	TV program data	Required
	when		The date and time when the program will be telecast	Date and time data	Required
		date	The date of the program	string	Optional	Default value is current date if no date is entered
		time	The time of the program	string	Required	Format is HH:MM with AM/PM for 12-hour format. Example of 12-hour format: 06:00 PM
		format	The time format (12 hours or 24 hours)	number	Required	Valid values: 12, 24
	duration		The duration of the program	Number data	Required hours	The duration of the program (in hours)	number	Required	The recording duration is converted from minutes or seconds to the nearest hour format. For example, If the recording lasts for 90 minutes, it will be converted into 1.5 hours.
	channel		The channel to record	Channel data	Required
		channel	The channel number where the program is telecast	number	Required	